PROF. IRELAND ON STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Local Educator To Be Appointed To High Place By New State Superintendent of Schools.

Only a few of his friends have known that since the election of Hon. Barksdale Hamlett as Superintendent of Public Instruction on the Democratic ticket, it is assured that Prof. J. W. Ireland, of this city, will be named as a member of the new State Board of Examiners, to be appointed by the new State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The State Board of Examiners is composed of two members, who, with the State Superintendent, form the body which has charge of the examinations for teachers of all the state. It is a very high position in the educational work in the state, and the friends of Prof. Ireland will congratulate him upon the appointment, which will be made by Supt. Hamlett as soon as he takes his office the first of the year.

Those who know Prof. Ireland well and are cognizant of the great work he has done with the Stanford Graded and High school, will also congratulate the new State Superintendent upon his splendid selection. Prof. Ireland has made the local school the best known in the state for a graded and high school in a small city, and has made it about the best school in the state, for a town anywhere near the size of this one.

MARKSBURY.

Lee Perkins bought 15 head of 700 pound cattle at $3.25.

John Marsee sold a bunch of sheep $14.75 per head.

W. T. Doolin sold a pair of weanling mares for $35.

Miss Kay Jenkins and Mr. Willie Jenkins have returned from a visit to relatives at Georgetown.

FIRST BASKET BALL GAME

To Be Played By High School Girls Saturday Afternoon.

There will be an exhibition game of basket ball by the girls on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the opera house. The Humble Hoes will play the High School team. The line-up will be as follows:

High School—Vera Hunt center, Mary Shepherd Cook forward, Ella Warren forward and captain, Mary Elizabeth McKinney guard, Gertrude Wilkinson guard, Josephine Carpenter substitute.

Humble Hoes—Nellie Wilson Hill, center and captain, Ruth Beck forward, Margaret Beck forward, Lettie W. McKinney guard, Dottie Wilson guard.

Miss Margaret Bicker has been coaching these teams for the past three weeks and has been doing some splendid work. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged to help defray expenses.

BAZAAR AT HUSTONVILLE.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church, of Hustonville, will hold their annual bazaar on December 16, and cordially invite everybody to attend, where they can get their Christmas presents for less than you can make them or purchase them anywhere. The features of this event are always very pleasant. The ladies will serve a regular meal, with oysters in every style. They will be served from 12 a. m. to 12 p. m. A delightful musical feature will make the day an enjoyable one for those who attend. A number of delightful classical numbers on the Victrola, Caruso, Melba, Schumann, Heink, Patti and others. Our ladies have many surprises for you and have been looking forward to the sale of these articles for no eye to please. So do not purchase your Christmas presents until you see what we have. Respectfully, the ladies of Hustonville Presbyterian church.

Mr. Dave Adams is very ill with the grippe.

Mr. Tom Hatt has moved to Crab Orchard.

AN ALARM AT NIGHT

That strikes terror to the entire household is the long hour and midnight cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Cason, Weston, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold, our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house. Shugars and Tanner.

Any number of Kentucky newspapers are boasting Shelton M. Sanfley of the Stanford Interior Journal, for appointment as a member of the State Board of Control or some other good office under Governor-elect McCreary.

"BOGE" BROWN

Appointed Master Commissioner In Garrard By Judge Hardin

As predicted by the Interior Journal last week, Judge Charles A. Hardin announced the appointment of W. H. Brown as Master Commissioner of the Garrard circuit court, at Lancaster this week. Mr. Brown will take charge of the office at once.

Everyone concedes that the selection of Mr. Brown was an admirable one on the part of Judge Hardin. He has an unmarred record as a democrat, and recently piloted the party to a splendid victory in Garrard in the recent campaign, a feat which hitherto been very rare of accomplishment in a year when there was a state election.

In addition to that, Mr. Brown has not been identified with any of the foul-mouthed fights in Garrard, and has the friendship of the leaders of both sides. He will undoubtedly make a splendid Commissioner.

THREE HOGS LIVE 72 DAYS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER

Unusual Record Made On Farm Of Jas. W. Williams When Straw Stack Falls on Porkers

That a hog can go 72 days without food or drink, seems impossible, but that's what three did on the farm of James W. Williams, one of the best known farmers in the county. Sid Myers, who kept track of the hogs, or rather noted the day of their disappearance, also vouches for the story.

It seems that Mr. Williams had three young meat hogs in a field in which there was a large straw stack. One morning, after a heavy wind the night before, the porkers showed up missing. They could be found nowhere, nor could any trace of them be located. It seems that the heavy wind of the night before had blown a large portion of the straw stack over them as they lay sleeping under its lee, while the storm raged. In this way, they were imprisoned in such a manner that they could not escape.

In this way the three pigs spent exactly 72 days. When finally discovered and released, they did not much resemble hogs. They were so thin and weak they could hardly stand up. Every hair was worn off their bodies by continual rubbing against the straw, and their flesh is said to have been almost as red as blood. In their efforts to sustain life by securing such nourishment as they could, they had eaten a space about seven feet in diameter in the center of the straw stack.

It required careful nursing for a number of days to save them, but, strange to say, they pulled through all right and were fatten up again when killing time recently rolled round. They refused to take water, when first released, and had to be led on warm milk, and other soft foods. One started to feeding, however, they developed enormous appetites, and within a short time showed no trace of their long fast and confinement.

CITY SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

Supt. J. W. Ireland announced the Honor Roll of the local city schools today, as follows:

VOTES IN THIS SECTION

Mary Noel Gooch, the bright little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Gooch, of the Waynesburg section, died at their home after a short illness of membranous croup. The little girl attended services at church Sunday night, and caught a deep cold which settled in her throat. The fatal disease took quick hold of her, and despite every thing that could be done, she died on Monday. She was buried after short services at the Mt. Olive church Tuesday. The fond parents, have the sympathy of a great many friends and loved ones in this their deepest hour of grief.

J. M. REYNOLDS

BUYS OUT Undertaking Establishment At Waynesburg.

J. M. Reynolds one of the best known citizens of the Waynesburg section of the county, this week bought out the undertaking establishment of E. C. Jordan at Waynesburg. Mr. Jordan comes to Stanford to take charge of the St. Asaph Hotel. Mr. Reynolds took possession at once, and will immediately install many new fixtures and improve the business in many ways. He has a handsome hearse, and will pay particular attention to crafts from a distance.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Received By Campaign Chairman Saufley From State Chairman

Rowan Saufley, who as chairman of the Democratic County Campaign Committee, led the fight in the recent campaign in Lincoln, has received the following letter of appreciation from State Chairman R. H. Vansant:

Ashtabula, Ky., Nov. 18, 1911

Mr. Rowan Saufley:

Stanford, Ky.

Dear Sir:

The Democratic party won such a splendid victory on November 7th and your personal efforts contributed so largely to bring about that result that I want to thank you for your industry and loyalty. A united party made success certain. If we had been divided into factions we would have gone to defeat. The lesson we have learned is a valuable one. We can not all agree on every question. Difference will arise over non-essential things, but on the great principles that keep Democracy alive we think alike.

So long as we face the Republican enemy with closed ranks Kentucky will remain in the Democratic column. Each of us should consecrate himself to work for the promotion of harmony and the cultivation of the spirit of generous, fair dealing with one another. We are entering upon an era of great Democratic triumphs. Kentucky has led the way. Let us continue to be an example in unity of purpose and devotion to party, to our fellow Democrats everywhere.

I have found great enjoyment and I have derived many benefits from the friendships formed in this campaign and I here renew to you assurance of my confidence and esteem.

Very sincerely yours

R. H. VANSANT

Chairman.

But Woodford County's Candidate For Speakership Finds Legislators For Shanks.

Hon. Harry A. Schoberth, representative from Woodford county, in the lower house of the legislature, and a candidate for the Speakership, was in Stanford a few hours this week with friends. He stopped off here en route from Lancaster to Danville. He saw Representative-elect John Farrar at the former place and was informed that Mr. Farrar is for Lincoln's candidate, Will Shanks, till the cows come home, and as Mr. Douglas, of Danville, is also strongly pledged to Shanks, there is little doubt but that Schoberth received similar information in that quarter.

Personally, Mr. Schoberth is a splendid fellow, but he is "in bed" politically speaking, with the present prison commissioners, who, it is understood, are moving heaven and earth to keep the next legislature from putting them out of business by placing the appointment of the prison commissioners in the hands of the governor, where it belongs. Prison Commissioner Eli Brown made a flying visit to Danville one day last week, and had a chat with Will Shanks, of this county, whom he telephoned he would like to talk to. Mr. Shanks, however, in his fight for the Speakership is lining up with no interests and will not deal with Mr. Brown in any way in his race for the Speakership. He and his friends believe that he will win the honor he seeks without making any alliances and they propose to make the fight along that line.

HOME, SWEET HOME

The Tenor of Lincoln County Lady's Letter From Hooferdom

In writing to have the Interior Journal sent to herself and family at their new home in Salem, Indiana, Mrs. W. R. Adams, says:

"I was formerly a resident of old Lincoln county and to me it is the garden spot of the world. Although I fled my present home situated in a fine country and in a good neighborhood and have made many new friends, it can not compare with old Lincoln to me, and the happiest moment of my life will be when I can once more take old friends by the hand. The singing of Jennie Lind can not equal the voice of the conductor or brakeman that calls 'All out for Crab Orchard.'

"This world is a pretty place—a very pretty place, but its greatest claim on my attention is that running through it, shining and straight is the way back home—back to my town; back to the garden spot.

"Home—the word restores to us our youth, our dreams, our hopes. We are back home where every one calls us by our first name, where every road or lane is a kineto scope of living memories where every house holds a part of our youth.

"As I cannot at present have the pleasure of being among old friends I must enjoy, the best I can, my new friends and have the next greatest pleasure, of reading of my old friends in the Interior Journal."

A TEXAS WONDER.

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, removing gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for testimonials from Kentucky and other states. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2920 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. Sold by druggists.

CARD OF THANKS.

We feel very thankful to our friends and neighbors who were so kind and attentive to us through the sickness and death of our darling infant baby, and also feel very thankful to the young men for their kindness shown us at the cemetery, R. E. O'Dear and wife.

MRS. PATSY PERKINS

Is Called to Her Reward After Long Life.

Mrs. Patsy Perkins, the aged mother of Mr. W. E. Perkins, of Crab Orchard, passed away at her home at Embank, last Saturday, aged 80 years. Mrs. Perkins was one of the oldest women in that section of the county, and leaves many relatives and loved ones to mourn that she is with them no more. She was a faithful member of the Christian church, and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Good Hope Sunday after services by Rev. Toodd. Mrs. Perkins took a great interest in church and other religious work and truly a good woman has gone to her reward since she is no more. She is survived by her son, Mr. Perkins and one daughter, Miss Nannie Perkins, and a sister, and other relatives.

Dink Farmer is a candidate for Jailer of Lincoln county subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Congressman Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, Democratic leader in the House of Representatives, and who made a splendid speech for democracy in Stanford, in the recent state campaign, says that he will not accept the nomination for vice president, but intimated that he is a receptive candidate for president. We would like to see him get almost anything he wants because of the fact that he's not only a splendid democrat in every way, but also is a native Kentuckian. However, we do not believe he has a chance for the presidency this time. Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey, is the man of the hour and the Moses to lead Democracy out of Egypt.

A retired Philadelphia banker told the United Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce a story to the effect that Roosevelt owed his election in 1904 to a secret understanding with the big financial interests with respect to the banding of the railroads by the government. We have always thought that such was the case since the Harriman contribution was exposed. Of course, Teddy will deny it, but what's the use? The only way the country can be freed from the domination of the big interests is to elect a democratic president next year, and we believe it's going to come at last.

The Interior Journal goes to press a little earlier than usual on its Friday edition this week, so as to give "the boys" plenty of time to eat Turkey on Thanksgiving. To be exact, this issue is printed Thursday morning, whereas our regular press time on our Friday issue is late Thursday afternoon. The I. J. force performed the rather unusual feat this week of getting out the two issues with but a day intervening. Our Tuesday's issue was printed late that afternoon. Not a line of type was up for Friday's issue until Wednesday morning, and the issue dated Friday was locked in the forms before eight o'clock Wednesday night, and you can see yourself how much news matter was "dug up" and type set up in day. The only way such a thing is possible is by the use of that great labor saver the linotype machine, the purchase of which is the best investment any publisher ever made.

Our friend J. M. Alverson, says there will be a convention to name the congressman in the Eighth. In this case the wish is certainly father to the thought, for Alverson wants to see Harvey Helm beaten and knows mighty well there isn't a man in the district who can do it in a fair fight before the people in a primary. But we wonder how many more planks of the Democratic state platform, our brother editor would also have set at naught?

HOW TO BE AN EDITOR

Most anyone can be an editor. All the editor has to do is to sit at a desk six days out of the week, four week of the month and 12 months of the year and "edit" such stuff as this: "Mrs. Jones of Cactus Creek, let a can opener slip last week and cut herself in the pantry." "A mischievous lad of Pickett threw a stone and struck Mr. Pike in the alley last Tuesday." "John Doe climbed on the roof of his house last week looking for a leak and fell, striking himself on the back porch." "While Harold Green was escorting Miss Violet Wise from the church social last Saturday night a savage dog attacked and bit Mr. Green on the public square." "Isaiah Trimmer of Running Creek was playing with a cat Friday when it scratched him on the veranda." "Mr. Fong while harnessing a broncho last Saturday was kicked just south of his corn patch." Yes, it is a wonder they draw salaries for it.—Wayne County Outlook.

Pennsylvania Schoolma'm in Lonely House Wigwagged a Passing Teamster.

BRUIN ON FIRST FLOOR

Girl While Preparing for Opening of the Term Accidentally Locked Up With Brute, Which Had Been Foraging Among Dinner Pails.

Galeton, Pa.—A teamster driving along the lonely Kettle Creek road the other day had his attention attracted by the frantic waving of a pair of human arms that were thrust out of the attic window of a little schoolhouse which sets back from the road near Oleona, and in one of the most picturesque but isolated sections of all that rather wild part of Potter county. Stopping his horses so that the rattle of the harness chimes was stilled, his ears were greeted by pitiful calls for help, in an unmistakably feminine voice, and then, looking sharply at the little opening at the gable end of the schoolhouse, he could distinguish the face of a woman back in the shadow of the building, for the window was not large enough to permit both her head and arms to protrude at the same time.

Holding a conversation from his position on the ground, the teamster was affrightedly informed that there was a bear on the first floor of the schoolhouse and the woman advised him to run for a gun before he attempted to open the door.

The woman was Miss Crissie Roper, the appointed teacher at the Oleona school, and in the forenoon she had gone to the schoolhouse alone to arrange some things preparatory to the opening of the term and to get acquainted with the piece.

She expected to find some carpenters at work making repairs upon the interior of the school building, but while the door of the building was unlocked and ajar there were no workmen about, they bawling, as she subsequently learned, going to another schoolhouse down the pike several miles to attend to some work, expecting to return to the Oleona school in the afternoon. The men had left their dinner pails there.

When Miss Roper entered the room and found it deserted she decided that she would turn her attention to sweeping the floor, and swinging the door shut in order to get the broom which she thought must be behind it. The door clanged shut and fast, for the spring lock had made her a prisoner without any key with which to unlock it.

Realizing her predicament, the young woman set about to find a way by which she might release herself from her lonely prison. The only way she could accomplish this, as she saw, was to take a small ladder with which the workmen had reached the attic, and which still stood in that position, with its upper rung reaching the opening into the dark apartment, where extra books and other accoutrements were kept, and which looked to the timid new teacher as though it was a very likely place for hats to roost, and if she could move it to one of the windows it would afford her an opportunity to get down to the ground.

Just then she heard a sound in a little room off from the main apartment, and at the next instant she was overwhelmed with fear at the sight of a full grown black bear that came shuffling out toward her. The animal had evidently been attracted into the schoolroom through the open door, and, finding the workmen's dinner buckets, had been indulging his appetite in cake and other toothsome delicacies.

But the sight of the young woman and the piercing shriek she uttered as she beheld the animal and recognized that she was locked in the building with him rather startled Bruin, and he retired to the other apartment. In the meantime Miss Roper, seeing a way of escape up the ladder into the attic, climbed up there, bats or not bats, and once up on the rickety floor she drew the ladder up to her, so the bear would have no chance of getting her. She struggled with the little attic window until she got it open, and then began her vigil for help.

In Kitty's Absence

Mrs. Emmons sighed deeply. "What's the matter, my deer?" asked Emmons, looking a bit anxiously across the breakfast table. "Don't you feel well?"

"Oh, yes, I'm feeling well. I was just wondering what I should do with myself. Now that the house is thoroughly cleaned and in order once again after all Kitty's sewing, I don't seem to have anything on hand."

"You don't appear to realize that a girl going away to boarding school needs a complete outfit," remarked Mrs. Emmons a little stiffly. "I'm sorry if you've found any holes in your socks."

"I was only joking," said Emmons hastily. "And I know, my dear, that you must feel quite lost without Kitty. I—well, really, I miss her myself. It seems a trifle too quiet around the house, doesn't it?"

"Indeed it does," Mrs. Emmons smiled at him a little mischievously. "I wish there's the door bell. Will you go?"

A moment Emmons returned with a letter in his hand. "A special delivery from Kitty. I signed for you," he said. "I suppose it's nothing serious."

"Rend it aloud," said Emmons.

"Dearest mother," read Mrs. Emmons, "I'm sending this by special delivery, for I want you to get it as soon as possible. We are going to have a fancy dress party Halloween, and I must have a costume. I wish you would think up several and write me about them and then I can decide which idea I like best, and then you can make it for me. Please think of something new and striking. How lucky I am to have such a clever mother! You see, I'm letting you know early so you won't have to hurry too much."

"How considerate!" murmured Kit's father.

"Well, it is considerate."

" Didn't I say so?" asked Emmons. His wife threw him a scornful look as she resumed the letter: "The terrible here is awfully tiresome. I wish you'd have Nora make me a big fruit cake. That keeps so well and is so wholesome."

"Indeed?"

"Now, if you're going to interrupt all the time I'll read the rest to myself. And, mother dear, if you could find time to make a lot of your delicious sand tarts I'd just love them. The girls are all crazy about them."

"I don't know how I ever did it, for I'm careful of my clothes, but I have a big three-cornered tea in my foulard frock. You are so wonderful at mending that I'm sending it home for repairs. Please get it back before next Saturday, as our crowd is going to the matinee, and I want to wear it. Please ask dad if I may go to the matinee Saturday. We divide the price of the chaperon's ticket so it doesn't cost very much, and you know the theater very educational."

"I've decided that I need a guipure for my evening dresses. Will you please make one this week, for I need it awfully? I'd like something elaborate in tucked lace or chiffon."

"I'm getting along splendidly in my studies, but I wish you'd tell dad if I may be excused from geometry. I don't think any one who isn't going to teach needs higher mathematics, do you? I'm going to send you the essay that I'm writing now. I wish you'd look it over carefully and suggest any changes you think it needs. I want to get a high mark in my English this year and I know if you correct my theme it will be a perfectly good essay."

"Well, goodby for this time. I send bushels of love and I hope you and dad don't miss me too much. Oh, yes, you will please see if you can find my roller skates in the attic? The girls skate in the gym on rainy days."

"Well, I think you won't suffer for lack of occupation for awhile yet," said Emmons. "And my socks can wait another month or so."

"Aren't you ashamed? Dear little Kitty!"

"Of course I am ashamed, and she needn't take geometry and she can go to the matinee every day if she wants to."

"Wby, Thomas."

"Well, isn't she my dear little Kitty as well as yours?"

A Scotsman went to London for a holiday. Walking along one of the streets, he noticed a bald-headed chemist standing at his shop door, and inquired if he had say hair restorer.

"Yes, sir," said the chemist; "step inside, please. There's an article I can highly recommend. Testimonials from great men who used it. It makes the hair grow in 24 hours."

"Aweel," said the Scot, "ye can gie the top o' your head a bit rub wi', and I'll look back the morn and see if you're tellin' the truth."—ideas.

A Warm Bathroom
PERFECTION

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms.

Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic-locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Heaters finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.

The Ideal Reading Lamp

Opticians agree that the light from a good oil lamp is easier on the eyes than any other artificial light.

The Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made.

It gives a strong, yet soft, white light; and it never flickers. It preserves the eyesight of the young; it helps and quickens that of the old.

You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for other lamps, but you cannot get better light than the low-priced Rayo gives.

Made of solid brass, nickel-plated. Easily lighted, without removing shade or chimney. Easy to clean and rewick.

HEED THE WARNING.

Many Stanford People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By extracting the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark ill-smelling urine, full of "brickdust" sediment and painful in passage. Singing kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired languid feelings and frequent rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy.

Stanford people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

John H. Wren, E. Main St., Stanford, Ky., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed for them. Off and on for several years I had severe attacks of lame back. I often did work that required stooping and at such times the trouble became worse. There was also a too frequent desire to void the kidney secretions both day and night. Doan Kidney Pills relieved me and have never failed to benefit me when I have taken them since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Millburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade. The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio,

GIRL'S HAIR IS CUT OFF WHILE ASLEEP

Revenge by Playmates Thought to Have Been Motive Prompting Deed.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Revenge by playmates is said to have been the motive that prompted some one to reach through a window of the home of Claude Weaver, an attorney, during the night and cut off the locks of Barbara, his fifteen-year-old daughter, as she lay asleep. When the girl awoke in the morning her long braids lay on the floor near the bed.

Mr. Weaver has hired a detective to work on the case. Recently Miss

Cuts Off Girl's Hair.

Weaver has been taunted by her playmates who resented what they termed her tendency to be "stuck up." Cynthia Powell, a girl friend, also had received a letter threatening her with dire punishment unless she continued to speak to certain boys of the neighborhood. The police suspect that one of these boys cut off Barbara's tresses.

LION CLAWS A LITTLE GIRL

An Eye Gouged Out, an Ear Torn Off and Her Face Terribly Mangled.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Clawed and bitten by a huge lion in a side show at the state fair here, Laura Burns, aged seven years, of Morrisville, N. Y., hours between life and death. The girl was frightfully mangled when she failed to keep back of the ropes and came within reach of the monster beast.

The lion caught her with one of his massive paws and while he held her fast he clawed her with the other paw as he tried to pull the child into his cage. Attendants rushed to the child's aid, but the animal had her fast in his grip, and infuriated by the taste of flesh refused to let loose until prodded with heated irons.

When finally it released the child it was found that the lion had gouged out one of her eyes, torn off an ear, and lacerated her face and the upper part of her body. The great throng and the shouts of the crowd frightened

SHOT BY PEEPING NEGROES

Circus Watchman is the Victim of Blacks Looking in Women's Dressing Room.

Louisville, Ky.—Thomas McCormick, aged 36, watchman for the Hartman & Hallie circus, was fatally shot during the performance here one night recently. Will Anty, a negro, is under arrest for the crime.

McCormick found two negroes peeping into the tent used by women performers for a dressing room. He remonstrated with them and they went away. A second time he caught the peepers and calling an assistant made ready to eject them from the inclosure. One of the negroes then drew a revolver and shot McCormick.

Governor Gray, the famous three-year-old gelding owned by Capt. James T. Williams, winner of two great derbies and which ran second in the Kentucky derby this year, and considered one of the classiest thoroughbreds on the turf, was burned to death Saturday in a fire which destroyed a barn at Capt. Williams' stock farm near Versailles, County Tax, another famous racer, also met death in the same fire. It is said both horses were fully insured.

Sam Jett had an exhibition at the Citizens' National Bank sample of corn raised at his pottery farm which will make about seven bushels to the acre. The land was sown in barley last fall and made about 30 bushels to the acre which was sold at $1 a bushel. The land was broken and put in corn about the first of July. The land will again be put in onions this fall if the weather permits; the onions to be fed to the little chickens next spring.—Winchester Democrat.

A big cattle deal was put through the past week when Catesby Woodford, of Kaeeland Farm, near Paris, sold to Jonas Weil, the well known stock buyer, 165 head of cattle, at $6.50 a hundred, for future delivery.

Seventy head, averaging about 1,300 pounds, were delivered to Mr. Weil on Friday.—Paris Kentuckian.

Relieves Backache Instantly

Sloan's Liniment is a great remedy for backache. It penetrates and relieves the pain instantly—no rubbing necessary—just lay it on lightly.

Here's Proof.

"I had my back hurt in the Boer War and San Francisco two years ago. I was hit in a car in the same place. I tried all kinds of care without success. Two weeks ago I saw your liniment. A drug store had given a bottle to me. It first application caused instant relief, and now except for a little stiffness, I am almost well."

FLETCHER NORMAN, Whittier, Calif.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is the best remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat and sprains.

Miss E. R. of Brooklyn, N.Y., writes: "Sloan's Liniment is the best for rheumatism. I have used six bottles and it is grand."
